Letter 1: Beverly Cleary

1981

“How pleased I was to receive an envelope containing birthday cards, notes and a lovely letter from the teacher! Thank you for remembering me and for telling me you enjoy my books. Strange, but one day last week I seemed to have happy birthday ringing in my ears – could it have come from you?”

My next book, which will be published in August, is Ramona Quimby, Age 8. I hope you will enjoy it, too.”

With love,
Beverly Cleary
