“Thank you, thank you, and many thanks more for the most thoughtful, surprising, wonderful birthday greetings.

I have been traveling for the past several months and am just catching up with mail so please forgive this late answer – but receiving your charming, extraordinary Arthur the Anteater birthday card and those delightful, most generous letters have made me feel as if I am enjoying a second birthday celebration. You are all so kind and thoughtful.

I love your letters and I am so happy you want me to know you like reading my books. That is the best birthday present an author can receive. I shall save and cherish your letters always. With warm and good wishes.”

Your friend,

Bernard Waber*

P.S. And thank you Phillip for the beautiful anteater drawing – you are so talented.
